

Publication Gets New '46 Editors

First Time Staff Selected Numbers Less Than Twenty

• FOR THE FIRST time in the history of the University, The George Washington Law Review, a publication devoted exclusively to federal and state public and governmental law, has selected only 12 students to membership on the Board of Student Editors for 1945-1946. The students are:

Leon Ben Ezra, John E. Birdsell, Dorothy S. Cook, William R. Divine, Robert G. Irish, Alfred B. Knight, George M. McMillan, John Y. Merrell, Lawrence E. Mitchell, Anne Peterson, Calvin P. Sawyer, Alfred J. Scanlon, Martha F. Snyder.

Published quarterly in December, February, April and June, the Review, which begins its 14th volume this year, is edited by a Faculty Editor-in-Chief, a Faculty Board of Associate Editors, and a Board of Student Editors.

Selection of student editors is based upon the maintenance of an average of at least "B" in law school work. Announcement of student officers of the Law Review staff will be made at a later date.

Law Review was published continuously throughout the war years on a quarterly basis and was one of the few law journals in the country which was able to publish a material volume of student editorial notes and case comments throughout that period.

Situated in the Nation's Capital, where the primary sources of federal public law may be observed in operation, the University affords an unexcelled opportunity for specialization in this field.

Jarmon Releases Recommendations For Who's Who

• FROM A LIST prepared by the Hatchet and Student Council, Dr. Burnice H. Jarmon and a faculty committee have recommended sixteen juniors and seniors for "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges."

The following names have been submitted: Janet Evans, Herbert Halberstadt, Juanita Hall, Joe Holtzman, Jane Lingo, Lois Lord, Felicia Miller, Anne Peterson, Polly Peterson, Phyllis Sherman, Agnes Smith, Elaine Smith, Dorothy Snyder, Larry Strickland, Anne Thaler, and Elizabeth Wells.

Names of the students, along with their qualifications based on scholarship, leadership, and service to the University, have been sent to the University of Alabama, the home of Who's Who. Final approval will take about six weeks.

The collegiate "Who's Who" is published annually in recognition of meritorious service to American college life.

Directors Settle $50 Book Account After Huge Sale

• CO-DIRECTORS Tommy Hirst and Eddie Wadden, who have sold 253 books netting over $50.00 have announced plans to settle all Student Book Exchange accounts.

Located in the basement of Building B, the store will be open on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m., and from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Books still on hand will be returned to their original owners and those sold will be paid for.

For the advantage of the students of the University the Book Exchange will be open from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. every Tuesday specializing on language books that may be needed during the semester.

Dean to Tour

• BEGINNING AN extensive tour, William C. Johnstone, Dean of the School of Government, will speak before an International Affairs Institute sponsored by the World Study Council in Detroit, Michigan, Saturday. His topic for discussion will be "Critical Issues in a World Facing Peace."

On October 20, Dean Johnstone will attend the Cleveland Council on Foreign Relations at the opening of their fall session in Cleveland, Ohio, where he will speak on "The Future of Japan," the title of his recently published book. He will deliver the same address to the Foreign Policy Associations in Baltimore, Maryland, and Boston, Massachusetts, on October 22, and November 3, respectively.

Vets Must Report Monthly Progress, Roy Delano Says

• ROY F. DELANO, new Veterans Administration's personal representative at the University, reported this week that under Public Law 16 all veterans must report their educational progress monthly or their subsistence, check will be held up until they report.

Mr. Delano will be in his office in Building F, 700 20th Street, Room 32, on Mondays and Thursdays from 1 to 4 to receive these reports and also to help any veteran with his educational or personal problems.

Benefits of Public Law 16 apply to all those veterans, who have a service disability of any kind. These veterans receive a monthly pension the amount of which corresponds to the disability received, in addition to the $500.00 a year allowed them for educational purposes.

Any veterans obtaining their education under Public Law 346, or the "GI Bill of Rights," are also welcome to consult Mr. Delano for information and guidance about their problems. Case histories of all veterans attending the University will be in Mr. Delano's possession and with the aid of these records he will be prepared to aid the veteran.

Blistered Hands, Dirty Faces Remain As Marks of Valiant Battle At Tug-of-War

By RAY GLASSCOCK

• FRESHMAN WEEK'S climaxing events, the Tug of War and the Huba Hop, held last Friday night, fully rewarded those who throughout the week had been wondering what each might be. Although the Tug inflicted blistered hands and besmudged countenances, no dampened spirits were in evidence at the Hop.

First off in the strenuous Tug was Kappa Kappa Gamma's victory over Chi Omega; Alpha Delta Pi next dragged Pi Phi over the white line; Delta Zeta, felled Zeta Tau Alpha. In the run-off, Delta Zeta, fatigued by it all, tossed in the towel, whereupon the Kappas, after much ado, dragged ADPI over the line to become University

Bacon Sets New Date To Elect

Petition Deadline Remains Same, Advocate States

• ALTHOUGH election dates were changed by the Council Monday night, deadline for petitions remains October 25. Balloting will now take place November 12 and 13 in the Student Club.

As yet no petitions of candidates for class elections have been turned in, Jim Bacon, Student Council Advocate, reported.

Advocate Bacon stated that he has, however, "heard rumors of seniors petitions being circulated" but so far as he knows no underclassmen have started.

For the first time all four classes are being organized with three officers, president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer heading each.

Junior and senior petitions require 20 of their classmates' signatures, while freshmen and sophomores must have 25 names. All candidates except freshmen must have a 2.0 average and be qualified by a letter from the Registrar's office.

Seniors are defined as those graduating in May, 1946, and having a minimum of 90 credit hours. Juniors must have from 60 to 90 hours; sophomores, 30 to 60; and freshmen, up to 20 hours.

Candidates will be introduced at the Student Council Masque Ball, October 26 at the Shoreham. Campaigning will begin the following Monday. Candidates may advertise in the Hatchet but the maximum expense is $5.00 for each office seeker. An itemized expense account must be handed the Advocate by 5 p.m., November 12.

Students may only vote for the officers of their particular class. Names will be checked off the class roll as each student casts his ballot.

Results will be announced at a special assembly now being planned by the Student Council, for November 14 at 1 p.m. in Lisner Auditorium.

Kayser Announces Fall Convocation

• FALL CONVOCATION, one of three held during the year, has been scheduled for October 17 at 5:30 p.m. in Lisner Auditorium. No tickets will be required. Ceremony will be over in time for students to attend their 6:10 classes. Elmer Louis Kayser, University marshal, announced last week.

Academic procession will include faculty members and students receiving degrees. President Cloyd Heck Marvin will deliver a short charge to the class.

And then, (Oh, the irony of it all) a picked freshman team, slated against a picked sorority team, gave their opponents a merciless beating.

What with two defaults, only one tug, and that the run-off, was held between the fraternities. Theta Delta Chi won by default over Phi Sigma Kappa, and SAE defeated Sigma Chi, again by default. Theta Delta Chi took the title from SAE in the only actual contest.

Promptly at 8:30 the assembled throng trooped over to the Student Club, in anticipation of learning at last what in the Dickens a "Huba Hop" might be. By 9:00 more than 20 persons were aware that the peculiar title signified only a highly successful and completely enjoyable evening.

Newman to Tap

• TAPPING OF Senator David I. Walsh, Chairman of the Naval Affairs Committee and former Governor of Massachusetts, as an honorary member of the University's Newman Club will be the climax of the next meeting to be held in Columbian House, Tuesday, October 16 at 8 p.m.

Following an introduction to the audience by Rev. Lawrence P. Gatti, the assistant pastor of St. Stephens Church and new moderator of the Newman Club, Senator Walsh will hold an Open Forum on "Pending Public Problems."

Kitty Bauer, president of the Newman Club, will present the scroll of membership to Senator Walsh.

Lisner Auditorium Becomes Scene Of New Program

• TO KEEP THEIR platform promises of last spring the Student Council has revived the Activities Council to not only keep the organizations on campus in closer contact with undergraduate government and to discuss mutual problems but also to make fuller student use of Lisner Auditorium.

Under the guidance of Activities Director Polly Peterson the new council will organize and plan monthly "happy hours," assemblies, and educational programs in which the entire student body will be interested and in which they will participate.

First meeting of the Activities Council will be Friday, October 19 at 7 p.m. in the library of Strong Hall. All organizations who wish to have a voice in this new governing body are asked to send a representative, preferably an officer or senior member, to this initial meeting, the activities director said.

Floyd Sparks, director of Cue and Curtain, will act as faculty adviser to the group and will help in the technical planning of the new program. Student Council's forum director, Jane Lingo, and vice-president, Margaret Lynn, will serve with the activities director and dramatic critic.

Ideal Coed Choice Set For Dance

Student Council Plans Masque Ball As Only Fall Prom

• CROWNING OF the first queen of the year will be the feature of the Masque Ball, October 26, at the Shoreham. The Ideal Coed will reign at the Student Council's only formal prom of the fall term.

Each sorority and any other campus organization should submit the name and picture of its candidate to Dot Snyder, social director, before next Thursday. Selection of the campus ideal will be based on personality, attractiveness, on-campus popularity, activities record, and scholastic standing.

The coed queen will be chosen by the ballots of those who attend the dance. Each ticket holder will be entitled to two votes. Ballot boxes will be arranged at the door with the picture and qualifications of each candidate. Polls will close at 10:30, so that the unmasking of the ideal Coed can take place during intermission.

Following the coronation ceremonies, each of the potential class officers will be presented and campaigning will officially get under way.

Tickets for the ball will go on sale today in the Student Club booth. Admission will be $1.50 plus tax. They may also be obtained from Council members.

Music for the dance will be furnished by E. Clay and his twelve piece orchestra. Only those wearing masks will be admitted. They may be purchased at the door at a cost of twenty-five cents per couple.

Trustee Pictures War Washington In Victory Bulletin

• "WAR-TIME Washington, New Wonder of the Western World," by Mrs. Jessie Fant Evans, member of the Board of Trustees, is featured in the latest issue of "Confidential—From Washington," a bulletin published by The George Washington Victory Council.

This issue was dedicated by President Marvin to Ulysses S. Grant, 3rd, Major-General, U. S. A., and trustee of the University, for his outstanding "service to the University, to the Nation's Capital and to our country."

Mrs. Evans, in her article, traces the changing of Washington from "its former sleepy Southern existence" to "a bustling, cosmopolitan city." She brings out the changes in the everyday life of the Washingtonian—waiting in lines, looking for homes.

Concluding her article with a brief history of Washington, Mrs. Evans states, "the Washington of today is like a great kaleidoscope mirroring this country's strengths and weaknesses in the transition from war to peace."

Cue 'N' Curtain Officers Expect Talent Increase

• CUE AND CURTAIN'S membership of 110 is expected to double at the close of auditions scheduled for last Monday, yesterday and today.

First meeting of the season is to be held tonight at 8 p.m. in Studio A of Lisner Auditorium. Workshop productions, major production, publicity and a general discussion on the workings of the organization will be the program for the evening.

According to the club's president, Mimi Branson, the other officers for the year will be Jane Drew, vice president, and Jeni Beavers, secretary.

How About That Mess!

• FEEDING 140 GIRLS is a task, but a task that has been capably handled thus far by the faculty club hostesses, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Justis, with the aid of Miss Virginia Kirkbride, director of personnel guidance.

Never before has all of Strong Hall and half of Staughton Hall been filled with full-time students. It was difficult to arrange a workable plan whereby all who wanted to could eat at the only college dining hall. By assigning a definite dining period, a system was devised whereby each could attend her evening class with sufficient time to eat and not have to wait in line.

Last year was filled with dissatisfaction. Half of Strong Hall wanted to eat at five o'clock. Lines were long. There were complaints about menus. Strong Hall girls jealously guarded their privileges and glared at outsiders who intruded on their limited terrain. Even President Marvin had to intervene when the demand for optional meals came.

Those who have labored to restore harmony can indeed be proud. Soothing factors of the past weeks have been good menus and the flexibility of the assignment system. Miss Kirkbride has done much to gain the cooperation of the girls by frankly explaining the situation to each as she gave her dining hour assignment.

However, there is still a need for an enlarged dining hall. After all, though termed a faculty club, not one of the faculty can take advantage of their former dining privilege. A college cafeteria would be the ideal solution; a dining hall open to all students. A place where one could purchase a well-balanced meal instead of taking a coke and a sandwich at the Student Club, Bassin's, or the drugstore. Food is essential to good college work and one cannot go through four years on a sandwich-coke diet.

In the blueprints of the University there is a Student Union Building which, no doubt, would have a cafeteria. That dream is a long way off. For now, the Faculty Club could be remodeled, enlarged, and made capable of handling the increased numbers. The dining hall is so built that a new kitchen and dining room could be added without inconvenience. A good architect could do wonders with the vacant space in the rear of the Faculty Club. Even if it meant that dormitory girls would have to eat out for a month, it would be worth it.

Then by enlarging the Student Club, hiring an adequate staff, and putting in new tables, there might be adequate eating facilities. The Student Club could then become exclusively a cafeteria. Supplies could be moved to another building, say the Book Exchange.

There is no end to the possibilities now that the war is over. Expansion will have to start some day. There could be no better beginning than to provide well-balanced meals for students.

Now We Are Two!

• HAVE YOU NOTICED the last page? At the request and expense of the University, page eight has been reserved for the University Gazette. This official bulletin sheet will appear on a trial basis in each issue of the Hatchet this semester.

The purpose of this enlarged weekly calendar is to keep faculty, students, and organizations informed of all University functions, club meetings, professional announcements, etc. Alumni Director Lester Smith and the program director of the Student Council, Phyllis Sherman, need the cooperation of all professors and activities to have a complete and accurate calendar of events, which will better serve the students and avoid conflicting dates. To accomplish this, all dates of coming events should be sent to Office of Information, Columbian House, before 11 a.m. Monday.

Publicity here is a hopeless job. Posters are put up—news stories are published in the Hatchet, but large crowds that still could and should be at student functions do not appear. The Gazette condenses all the news stories in a short, concise, chronological fashion so there can be no excuses for not having heard or seen about scheduled affairs.

Gazette is fast becoming an important means of synchronizing campus life. Although entirely separate from the paper, it is essential to the life of the eight-page Hatchet. After approving the Gazette, sufficient funds were granted by the Board of Trustees to make our weekly eight-page issue possible.

Like love birds, if the Gazette dies the eight-page Hatchet may also. Let's cooperate and keep both alive!

Letters To The Editor

To the Board of Editors:

It was with a great deal of interest and no small measure of disappointment that I listened to Mr. Marvin's remarks concerning the athletic picture here at the University. It seemed rather untimely to me that, at a meeting obviously intended to acquaint the new students with university life and possibly instill a degree of school spirit in a group almost entirely devoid of enthusiasm, he should choose to deliver the unkindest cut of all. His blunt statements left nothing to the realm of imagination or even remote possibility of the return of sports in the near future. His estimate of the cost of full-scale participation would stagger even a New Deal bureaucrat and certainly a conservative board of trustees.

I wonder if Mr. Marvin realizes what $2,250,000 would buy in the way of athletic merchandise. Conservatively speaking, it would probably buy the Washington Senators, the Lichtman Bears, the Washington Redskins football team, with Griffith Stadium thrown in on the deal.

I wonder if Mr. Marvin realizes the first class universities who consistently turn out "Big Name" teams that are operating on total endowments of far less than his 2½ million sports estimate alone. To name a few one might mention: Georgetown, Holy Cross, Georgia Tech, Stanford, Southern Cal., Fordham, Clemson, and there is a little school out in South Bend, Indiana, that produces fair teams once in a while. I think they call it Notre Dame.

It certainly seems to me, from the list of eligible basketball players that a team might be developed worthy of the best colonial traditions and of sufficient caliber to insure a successful season. It is my understanding that the athletic department has been approached by other universities with regard to the possibility of scheduling games this year. In Otis Zahn, who led the '43 Colonials to victory in the Southern Conference tournament, we have the coach, we have eligible players, all we need is the green light!!! It would be nice if the administration gave the students at least a fifty-yard dash for the $200,000 they "kick" in for registration fees each year.

SPORTS FAN

Ten Minute Break

WITH PHIP...

THE WINCHELL CASE...

Latest development is the letter received last week from the columnist's secretary stating that he would be happy to see a representative from the club, preferably on a Sunday evening. Winchell intends to accept the honorary membership, but that is an issue the club is still debating.

ELECTIONS...

Action will no doubt wait until the next meeting, which is tentatively scheduled for the week following fraternity rushing. There have been no additions to the slate as presented last week. Once elections are over, the club can get down to the business of the year without the friction which always accompanies such heated competition. In the reorganizational shuffle, the club as a unit should come out on top, for there is work to be done with the four hundred veterans already registered this year.

ADVISORY SERVICE...

An addition to the veteran program is Mr. Roy, F. DeLano, who wants to talk with any veteran who has a problem. His office, temporarily located in Building F, Room 32, will be open Monday and Thursday afternoons from 1-4 p. m. Ex-servicemen will still have to go to the Veterans Administration with such problems as finances, but Mr. DeLano will save a good many steps if Veterans come to him first.

GUIDANCE CENTER MOVES...

The Washington Counseling Center, under the direction of Dr. J. Davis, is now located in the Basement of Stockton Hall (Law School), 720 20th Street, N. W. The former headquarters were 720 22nd Street. With larger quarters and a staff of ten, the Center can now more easily handle the vocational and aptitude testing service.

Center only serves those Veterans who are officially referred by the Veterans Administration, 300 Indiana Avenue. Any serviceman in the Washington area is eligible to take advantage of this service regardless of the type of training or education he desires.

NEW GI FRATERNITY...

Gamma Iota Alpha, standing for "GI Association" has been organized at Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, for all honorably discharged members of any branch of the armed forces. It has been registered in the Patent Office here under a trademark.

Founded October, 1943, their purpose and program corresponds almost identically with our Veterans Club. This year the fraternity is planning an expansion in colleges all over the country. Information and a copy of its constitution may be obtained from Gamma Iota Alpha, Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, 85 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Inside Track On...

Felicia Miller

• AMONG THE NOTED PEOPLE on our campus is an attractive, energetic, sparkling gal, whom we all recognize as Felicia Miller.

Although originally from New York, Felicia has been living in Washington, D. C., most of her life. All of her twenty summer, however, were spent in surf-riding, boating, and in other forms of activity on Nantucket Island, Massachusetts. Part of last summer she spent in Mexico. As she is majoring in Spanish, this proved to be quite an entertaining trip. In the future she plans to enter some form of Latin American affairs, preferably in the editorial field.

Coming to the University as a scholarship student from Central High School, Felicia started her freshman year by becoming a member of Delta Zeta sorority and secretary of the Junior Panhellenic Council, as well as a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman honorary fraternity.

As this year's Cherry Tree editor and secretary of Mortar Board, Felicia has a busy year ahead of her. Last spring she became a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Other activities that Felicia has devoted her time to are the Inter-Sorority Athletic Board, French Club, Spanish Club, executive board of the Women's Athletic Association, and a three-year member of Orchesis.

Sports come first as Felicia's preference for spare time activity, with badminton, swimming, and bowling heading the list.

Right now, Felicia would have us know that her male interest is in the Coast Guard.

When she gets her degree in May, Felicia plans on studying for her Master's in Latin American history, here at the University.

University Welcomes New Profs

Many Departments See Some Growth As Year Begins

● EVIDENCE of the termination of the war and post-war expansion was felt throughout the University this fall with the return or addition of new members to the staff, and the establishing of new courses.

Dr. Warren Reed West, executive officer of the Political Science Department, announced the addition of Lawrence Michelmores, lecturer; Richard C. Spencer, professional lecturer, and Elmer B. Staats, lecturer.

Dr. Michelmores (Ph.D., Harvard) has taken over the evening section of Government of the United States. He is assistant chief of the International Activities Branch of the Bureau of the Budget.

Dr. Spencer (Ph.D., Illinois), formerly of Western Reserve and the University of Cincinnati, will lecture in the second half (10X) of the United States Government course. Dr. Staats, who formerly carried Public Administration on a one-semester, three-credit basis, has expanded the course and is offering it for six credits.

Dr. Jacob L. Mosak, now with OPA and formerly of the University of Chicago, is offering a seminar, Economic Theory and Statistics in Research, Thursdays at 8 p.m. Wesley C. Haraldson and Dr. Peyton Kerr, members of the United States Strategic Bombing (See University, Page 7)

Smile for Camera!

● APPOINTMENTS to have individual pictures for the Cherry Tree will be taken beginning Monday, October 15, in the Student Club, Felicia Miller, editor, disclosed today.

Editor Miller also pointed out that there are also both editorial and business staff positions open and any student who is journalistically inclined is asked to attend the staff meeting tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. in Building K.

Director Harmon Seeks New Talent To Begin Season

● ALL OLD MEMBERS of the University Glee Club are requested to attend the first meeting of the new semester in Studio A, Lister Auditorium on Tuesday, October 16.

Girls' Glee Club will meet at 12 p.m., while the Mens' Glee Club will meet at 8 p.m. All those interested in retaining their membership should either report to the meeting or send word explaining their absence. Dr. Robert Harmon, director, warned.

Tryout for new members of the Glee Club will be held on October 18 and 23.

One of the oldest campus organizations, the Glee Club, has for 26 years closed its calendar year with a recital and dance given in the early spring. One tradition the club observes at all its dances is the invitation by Dr. Harmon to all old members present to join in the singing of the last number, "Kamenel Ostrow."

University Hospital Progresses

Toomey Announces All Sub-Contracts Made for Building

● CONSTRUCTION of the new University hospital is proceeding on schedule according to Joseph Toomey, superintendent of construction for the Charles H. Tompkins Co., builders with the concrete for the first floor now being poured.

Very soon, Mr. Toomey expects to be able to estimate exactly when the six-story building will be available for use.

Sub-contracts for plumbing, heating, electrical work, etc., have been made. The only construction material difficult to obtain now is brick, but Mr. Toomey stated that they will be able to get it when they are ready to use it.

The hospital, including the medical school, was allotted $2,700,000 by the Federal Works Agency when the project was first begun. For the first five years after completion the 400-bed hospital will be supervised by the Public Buildings Administration of the Federal Government. At that time the hospital will be offered to the University for purchase.

Located at 23rd and Eye Streets, N.W., it is the sixth addition under the University expansion program which began several years ago.

Meet Miss Smith!

● THIS NAME, Smith, has been causing people a lot of confusion and misidentity since the days before Capt. John Smith and the Hatchet is no exception. The entire staff wishes to humbly apologize to Elaine Smith, president of WAA, who was featured in Inside Track last week, but who was pictured as Agnes Smith, president of Panhellenic, due to a printer's error.

The staff wishes to thank Agnes Smith for that continual smile through the first two issues of the Hatchet.

Ragatz Plans Films On Historical Data For Two Classes

● FINDING NEWSPAPERS and motion pictures to be of great benefit to upperclassmen, Lowell Ragatz, professor of European history, plans to continue to supplement class lectures with films. He uses old newsreels and government films which he himself edits and assembles.

In the second summer session, Professor Ragatz combined lecture and films in his evening class, "Second World War and Reconstruction." The course was so arranged that a series of five lectures on a subject, combined with outside reading and study, preceded one evening of films edited to fit the course.

This proved so successful that Professor Ragatz will continue the practice this fall in his courses, "International Relations, 1919-1945," and "Modern Imperialism."

Dramatists Plan Fall Initiation

Phi Epsilon Delta Selections Include Non-Acting Groups

● AS AN HONORARY fraternity of drama, Phi Epsilon Delta begins the season with plans for the fall initiation. New members will be those selected from Cue 'n' Curtain, who have made outstanding progress in the fields of directing, acting, play-writing, or scenic construction.

Initiates must be upperclassmen who have completed stated courses in drama and maintained a good general scholastic average.

Ray Tallman, co-author of "The Laboratory Stage," and former instructor at the Scarborough School, is among those to be initiated. Tallman was for many years associated with both the non-professional and professional theatres.

The scenes for Cue and Curtain's "Elizabeth the Queen" were designed and constructed under the direction of Tallman.

President Larry Strickland announces that the group hopes to increase its size during the coming year. Slated to work with Cue 'n' Curtain, "Phi Ep will endeavor to stimulate interest in drama on the campus," he concluded.

In a conference with President Marvin last spring the organization asked for the services of two additional instructors, one for stage craft and one to assist in directing.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY ARTICLES OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Amended March 27, 1945
Approved September 12, 1945

ARTICLE I. The Student Council

There is hereby vested in the Student Council the jurisdiction and authority to regulate, supervise, and coordinate all student activities except intercollegiate athletics and intra-mural athletics where credit is given.

ARTICLE II. Duties of the Student Council

Section A. The Student Council shall promulgate rules to implement the regulation of student activities. These rules shall include the following:

1. Rules governing class and Student Council elections.
2. Rules to classify major and minor activities, with as many sub-classifications as may seem desirable to the Council.
3. Rules requiring all activities to file such reports as the Council may request.
4. Rules prescribing a system of accounts and records for any activity or for each of them.
5. Rules providing appropriate penalties for violation of any rule, regulation, or order of the Student Council.

Provided that: No penalty shall be inflicted for violation of any rule or regulation without first giving each organization affected thereby notice of the exact nature of the alleged violation and one week's notice of the date on which each affected organization will be afforded an opportunity to be heard.

6. Such other rules and regulations as may seem desirable to the Council.
7. Robert's Rules of Order shall prevail in all cases not covered by this Constitution.

Section B. The Council shall coordinate the publicity efforts of any or all activities and promulgate rules and regulations with reference thereto as may seem desirable.

Section C. The Council shall direct the orientation and organization of freshmen.

Section D. The Council shall maintain a public record of the Activities Calendar.

Section E. The Council shall by October 15 of each year notify all activities and publish in the Hatchet a list of closed nights. Night shall be closed at the discretion of the Council for the staging of all University student functions. No other organization may hold meetings or parties of any kind on a closed night. Changes in or additions to the schedule may be made by the Council after giving one month's public notice.

Section F. The Council shall promote, foster, and coordinate annual programs which will afford the students of the University the opportunity of hearing discussions of public questions by outstanding national figures.

ARTICLE III. Members of the Student Council

Section A. The Student Council shall consist of the following members:

1. President of the Student Body
2. Vice President of the Student Body
3. Activities Director
4. Student Comptroller
5. Publicity Director
6. Freshman Director
7. Secretary
8. Advocate
9. Social Chairman
10. Program Director
11. Such other members as the majority of the Students Life Committee shall add from time to time, provided that no additions to the membership of the Student Council shall be made by the Student Life Committee without a prescription of the duties of such additional offices together with the qualifications necessary for eligibility.

Section B. The members of the Student Council shall have the following duties:

1. The duties of the President shall be to preside at all meetings of the Student Council, to see that the duties of the Council and its members are performed as herein described, and to carry out such other duties as are specified in this Constitution, and in the parliamentary authority adopted by the Council.
2. The duties of the Vice President shall be to act as presiding officer in the absence of the President; to act as assistant to the President in seeing that the duties of the Council and its members are performed as herein described; to be in charge of the Council's educational program, outlined in Article II, Section F.
3. The duties of the Activities Director shall be to develop and direct, in cooperation with the Student Council, student activities program.
4. The duties of the Student Comptroller shall be as follows:
 - a. The Student Comptroller shall organize, supervise, and direct the maintenance of system of records, budget, and accounts for all activities to which funds shall be allocated by the University; to exercise general supervision over the finances of these activities in accordance with the regulation of the Student Council.
 - b. The Student Comptroller shall budget and allot all funds from the University as directed by the Student Council with the approval of the Student Life Committee, or the proper sub-committee thereof, and shall expend the same through the office of the Comptroller of the University in a manner to be prescribed by the Comptroller of the University.
 - c. The Student Comptroller shall be bonded in a penal sum to be fixed by the Comptroller of the University, such sum not to exceed the amount of money allocated to the Student Council by the University.
5. The duties of the Publicity Director shall be to coordinate the publicity agencies of student activities, and to act as a public relations officer of the Council and its activities.
6. The duties of the Freshman Director shall be to organize and direct, subject to the approval of the Council, a program at the beginning of each semester designed to orient entering students and to supervise the organization of the Freshman class.
7. The duties of the Secretary shall be to maintain the official minutes of the Council and such files and records of the Council proceedings as the Council may direct, and to maintain all the correspondence of the Council.
8. The duties of the Advocate shall be to supervise and to maintain order and fairness in all general elections to the Student Council and to class offices; to act as advocate to the Student Council; to advise the Council as to its constitutional powers; to draft orders and regulations; to represent the Council in hearings before the Student Life Committee; and to appoint an Elections Committee with the approval of the Council at the time of each election.
9. The duties of the Social Chairman shall be to initiate and draft, subject to the approval of the Student Council, a well-rounded and adequate social program for the Student Body.

The duties of the Program Director shall be to maintain a public record of the Activities Calendar, and to obtain from all organizations a schedule of their events.

Section C. A student may run for an office in the Student Council if he meets the following qualifications:

1. General qualifications
 - a. He shall not be on probation.
 - b. He shall have completed at least two semesters of residence in the George Washington University, having completed at least twelve semester-hours.
 - c. He shall have a record of meritorious service in campus activities, as shall be determined by the Committee on Qualifications.
 - d. He shall have proven himself to be of the strictest moral integrity, to the satisfaction of the Committee on Qualifications.
 - e. He shall not hold at the time of the election nor receive while in office a Bachelor's degree; he shall not have been at this or any other institution of higher learning for more than six years.
2. Special qualifications
 - a. President and Vice President
 - (1) They shall have completed at least four semesters of residence at The George Washington University, having completed at least twenty-four semester hours.
 - (2) They shall have a record of proven leadership on the campus, to the satisfaction of the Committee on Qualifications.
 - b. Comptroller
 - (1) He shall have served at least one term as business manager or financial director of one of the major activities, or as the treasurer of a social fraternity.
 - (2) He shall have completed at least one year of academic work in the principles of accounting, or the equivalent thereof.
 - c. Activities Director
 - (1) He shall have completed at least three semesters of residence at The George Washington University, having completed at least eighteen semester hours.
 - d. Social Chairman
 - (1) He shall have served at least one term as Social Chairman of a campus organization.

ARTICLE IV. Elections of Members to the Student Council

Section A. The members of the Student Council are to be elected by the Student Body at large between April 15 and May 15 of each year, and shall take office at the end of that semester for a term of one year.

Section B. Any student wishing to become a candidate for an office of the Student Council may do so by submitting to the Elections Committee of the Student Council the following:

1. A certification from the Registrar, to prove satisfaction of the scholarship and residence requirements.
2. A list of his campus activities.

Section C. The Student Council shall set up a Committee on Qualifications.

1. The Committee on Qualifications shall consist of the President and Secretary of the following organizations:
 - a. The Engineer's Council
 - b. The Student Bar Association
 - c. The Interfraternity Council
 - d. The Panhellenic Council
 - e. Mortar Board
2. Any member of the Qualifications Committee who is a candidate for office shall appoint a substitute from the group he represents.
3. The duties and powers of the Committee on Qualifications shall be:
 - a. To review the qualifications of the applicants for candidacy, and to determine the validity of their qualifications; in accordance with Article III, Section C, of these Articles.
 - b. To refuse recognition of any candidate whom it finds to be lacking in one or more of the qualifications listed in these Articles.
4. Appeals of decisions of the Committee on Qualifications may be addressed to the Student Council, and a final ruling may be obtained from the Student Life Committee delegated by the Student Life Committee.

Section D. Election campaigning shall be limited to advertising in The Hatchet, to an amount to be fixed in the Election rules to be drawn up by the Election committee, as provided in these Articles.

Section E. Each voter will indicate on his ballot one choice for each office. The candidate receiving a plurality will be elected.

Section F. The Elections Committee shall have full charge of the election, and shall be empowered to apply penalties for violation of the election rules.

ARTICLE V. Meetings of the Student Council

The Council shall meet regularly every week during the school year at a time prescribed by the Council. The President may call special meetings at his discretion, and shall call meetings upon the request of three Council members.

ARTICLE VI. Removal of Members

Upon the petition of fifty students, or upon the recommendation of a majority of the Student Council or of the Student Life Committee, any member of the Student Council or student member of the Student Life Committee, may be removed from office by the Student Life Committee, after a two-thirds vote of the faculty members of the Student Life Committee. The Advocate shall prosecute all cases which originate in the Student Council.

ARTICLE VII. Student Activities

Effective June, 1946, a student may hold only one of the following major positions: Editor of The Cherry Tree; Editor of The Hatchet; President of Cue 'n' Curtain; President of WAA; President of Panhellenic Council; Business manager of The Cherry Tree; Business Manager of The Hatchet; Business manager of Orchids; Business manager of Cue 'n' Curtain; All Student Council positions (not including representatives of separate schools). A student who holds a major office may in addition hold a maximum of two of the following minor offices: Presidents of all other organizations; Treasurers of all social and professional fraternities and sororities; Sub-editorial board of The Hatchet; Associate The Hatchet; Advertising manager of The Hatchet; Student Council appointments; Buff 'n' Blue Directors Book Exchange Directors; COGS Chairman; Drives Chairman.

ARTICLE VIII. Amendments to the Articles of Student Government

These Articles may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council, and the approval of the Student Life Committee. One week's notice must be given on any amendment, and the proposal must have been printed in the Hatchet prior to final adoption.

Reception Presents New Delta Gammas

• FORMAL INSTALLATION of the Beta Rho chapter of the Delta Gamma fraternity was celebrated at a reception Sunday at the home of Mrs. Cloyd Heck Marvin, an active alumna.

Established on campus last May, the sorority became active Saturday after ceremonies at the chapter house at Maryland University. Four national officers, Mrs. Florence Bingham, president; Mrs. Dorothy Holsinger, first-vice-president; Mrs. Jean Teale, second-vice-president; Mrs. Dorothy Wildason, secretary, officiated.

Members of the new chapter are: Cynthia Phillips, president; Jean Stiger, vice-president; Sue Morrison, recording secretary; Ruth Jeanne Ludolph, corresponding secretary; Elizabeth Lewis, treasurer; Joan Beveridge, Beverly Bissett, Isabel Knowles, Eleanor Klokow, Janet Evans, Mary Jane Baxter, Betty DeCoursey and Jackie Rumsey.

Round of ceremonies began Friday evening with a discussion led by Mrs. Wildason in the sorority rooms, second floor of Building K. Saturday morning a pledging of three patronesses, Miss Elizabeth Burtner, Mrs. Leon, and Mrs. Gilbert was held in the rooms.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock a model meeting was held. Miss Jane Cowie, province secretary, presided until the Constitution was approved and the officers formally installed by Mrs. Bingham, national president. Upon turning the meeting over to the new president the meeting proceeded.

The reception held from 5-7 at the home of Mrs. Marvin climaxed the weekend with the formal presentation of the new chapter to faculty, Delta Gamma alumnae, sorority and fraternity representatives, and University activity leaders.

On Monday the Pan-Hel delegates Mary Jane Baxter and Joan Beveridge, accompanied by the president, Cynthia Phillips, took their seats with the other members of Panhellenic Council.

Appointees, yet to be installed, are Rush Chairman Isabel Knowles, Ritual Chairman Jackie Rumsey, Anchora Correspondent Janet Evans, Scholarship Chairman Eleanor Klokow, and Historian Beverly Bissett.

A formal banquet will be held at the Statler next Saturday evening after the installation of Beta Sigma chapter at Maryland U. The banquet will be in honor of the two new chapters.

Chapel Opens

• PRESIDENT Cloyd H. Marvin will speak at the first University chapel service of the year in Columbian House at 12:10 p.m., Ann Thaler, chairman of the Chapel Committee, announced.

Chapel is held in Columbian House each week at 12:10 p.m. and is a part of the University's religious program open to all students.

Devotionals, music, and a prayer under the direction of a representative of one of the various religious clubs, comprise each program.

Prominent speakers have been scheduled for each meeting. A list of these speakers was published in the University Gazette, page eight of the Hatchet, October 4, 1945.

Dr. Murdock Joins Law Professors

• JAMES OLIVER Murdock, professor of International Law in the Law School since 1930, has been appointed full time professor. He will present courses in Criminal Law, Comparative Law, and International Law.

Mr. Murdock has practiced in the field of international law for more than 18 years. Nine years were spent as legal advisor in the Department of State, where he represented the United States before the International Joint Commission—United States and Canada—and was counsel for the United States in the United States-Sweden arbitration.

Mr. Murdock recently stated "That the progress in the fields of transport and communications makes it imperative for all lawyers who would be masters in their profession of social engineering to have a good working knowledge of foreign and international law."

"Physically, science has created a single world community," he continued. "The lawyer's knowledge of the laws and methods of peaceful settlement in other countries and between nations, remains fragmentary."

"World peace can be maintained effectively only by a large force of social engineers constantly settling by peaceful processes the manifold differences that arise as a result of clashes of interest in the international or world community."

Also returned to the Law School this year is Carville Dickinson Benson, formerly a full-time professor. Mr. Benson has been released from the Navy, where he held the rank of lieutenant commander.

This year COGS intends to carry on numerous activities that will include such work as dancing at Fort Belvoir, Red Cross, and AWVS work, along with community work including aiding several orphanages in the city, and backing university programs.

In order that other organizations will have a better understanding of the requirements for entrance to COGS, what it is doing, and what it is going to do in the future, Dorothy Egging, co-chairman, will ask that permanent delegates be sent from each activity to form a coordinating board.

Changes Dates
• ELIZABETH BURTNER, director of the modern dance groups, announced yesterday the following changes in Orchestras schedules: First Group, Tuesdays, 4-5:30 p. m.; Second Group, Thursdays, 4-5:30 p. m.; Junior Dance, Mondays, 4-5:30 p. m.

Orchestra is planning now for its program in connection with the first Cue 'n' Curtain production in November. Original music and scripts are also being considered for the dance recital in the spring.

Club to Nominate
• NOMINATIONS for new officers of the Psychology Club will be held tomorrow at 5:30 p. m. in Room 403 of Lisner Library.

Fencers Say, "Where There Is A Sword There's Fun For All"

By BEA MELTZER

• RESUSCITATION AND reorganization of fencing as a University campus sport is the focal point of a nucleus of fencers who actively will work toward getting support from the Physical Education Department once new members and old form a working and enjoyable association.

All students who have fenced with foil, saber, or epee are invited to attend the next fencing meet to be held temporarily on Thursday nights at 8 in Recreation Hall. All students interested in learning the exotic sport, displayed so prominently in all World Olympic meets, also are invited, Bea Meltzer, president of the fencing club said.

"Girls may not know it but the reason they take their menfolk by the left arm today is the one-time necessity of a gentleman, armed with a sword, leaving his right arm free for a lightening draw when the couple encountered the proverbial villain."

"And, that isn't all. The sword is the reason the well-dressed gentleman of today buttons his jacket down the right side instead of the left. If an acquaintance of his became unduly obnoxious, the gentleman could pull open his jacket with his left hand, draw his sword with his right, and yell, 'En Garde!' That is, if he wasn't a southerner."

"Swordplay has been an occupation and a sport as far back as recorded literature when Homer immortalized the brave and gallant warriors who could cleave their opponents in half with one blow."

"Invincible Achilles, a semi-mortal Greek whose mother was a sea nymph, fought bravely with his famous sword made by Hephistos, swordmaker for the mythological Greek gods, on the battlefield against the Trojans to avenge the death of his best friend."

"Greeks and Romans also used their trusty swords in jousts and tournaments, and as time progressed, and the Roman empire fell, Germanic tribes in central Europe adopted the sword. Advancing quickly in the realm of history, standard armies of the world began practicing fencing, employing the huge two-handed sword, the scimitar, and the saber."

"Only the discovery of gunpowder caused a decline of the sword's potency until the duel populaire came into existence. At the peril of their lives, two gentlemen of honor combat with equal weapons to settle a difference, large or small, of heart or interest, instead of submitting to arbitration or conciliation, as we know it today."

"People became so enthusiastic over the duel that they went around challenging even their friends upon the slightest provocation. In several European countries people were stopped on the street and invited to act as seconds, who sometimes started fighting also. A man would go to kill or be killed by persons he had never seen before and probably never would see again. Members of the (See FENCERS, Page 6)

Filipina Describes Horrors In Japanese-Held Manila

By JOYCE GLUECK

• MAVIS SANIDAD, daughter of a Philippine congressman and now a student at the University, described the Japanese attack on, and occupation of Manila.

"From the moment the Japs came, I lived in fear—we all did. We Filipinos lived only for each day, not knowing what tomorrow would bring, and we weren't prepared on December 8, 1941, when the Japanese came to bomb Manila."

"There were no air raid shelters so we went to sleep at the Philippine University. The building had thick stone walls, but every night we had to sleep on a cement floor."

"Later we bought a home in the outskirts of Manila, and the city began to have curfews and air raid shelters, but they were made of wood and would not withstand a direct hit."

"As my mother and I were leaving church we noticed that everyone was subdued. The Japs are entering," they said. We rushed home in our car, and for three months I stayed in the house with the windows closed. Whenever a car passed, I was locked in my room."

"Then there came the time when they came to use our home as quarters for three days and three nights. They thought that somewhere in our neighborhood was a short wave radio, and they hoped to get reports from Honolulu."

"One noon all the windows in the house were closed, when we heard a car coming. I ran to the door and saw a Jap car. A civilian and several officers got out. At first, I didn't know what they were going to do. As my mother reached the door, a truckload of soldiers jumped from a truck and were in the house before we knew it. I was locked in the bathroom, but I could hear steps. What if they had rifles or bayonets?"

"I went into my room when my mother said, 'You better come out; it's no use.' As I was opening the door I looked back and there were three Japanese soldiers looking at me. It's like a dream now—they told me to go to my family in the living room. There was a sentry at the front door carrying a shining bayonet. Another stood alert, holding his bayonet in front of him. I went to my mother who was sitting in the corner—she was praying like anything."

"The Japs pierced our beds with swords, scattering everything in our rooms. They were looking for something which they thought was with us. We were not afraid because we knew we had no radio."

"But there was something worse. If they had found it, I wouldn't be here now. On the first floor we had ammunition and guns and one rifle of my daddy's enclosed in cement. We had placed cooking utensils in front of the cement to make it look like a stove. We kept looking at each other, and we knew. But somehow they did not find it."

"The Japs would bring all the men they suspected to our house. We could hear them questioning them in the cellar, and also the sound of slapping. We were scared."

"Then there was the time my (See FILIPINA, Page 4)

Slide Rule Slants

By B. BERNSTEIN

• OIL UP YOUR Slide Rules fellow engineers, we are at it again. The first week is over, the preliminaries are done with and the bout begins.

Annual Freshman Mixer is one day in the past. Did all you engineers, new and old join your respective engineering societies? If you didn't, hasten to do so. An engineer should show more interest in his chosen field other than just going to school and living. Everything is not in text books.

Al Barouck is a civilian again. Dr. Arthur F. Johnson is back to head the education of the M.E.'s. Also Professor Hitchcock is back to guide the "bridge building" C.E.'s. In February we may expect the return of Professor Cook, Strollo, and Ames.

Engineering School has been given a grant of $5,000 for a Lectureship in Industrial Research by Frank A. Howard, class of 1920.

M.E.'s have big plans for the coming year. According to Bob Kemelder, president, they plan to have frequent competitive student talks for prize talks by prominent men, and social activities. E.E.'s plan to contact their alumni for talks on their experiences. C.E.'s carry on with their usual type of meetings.

Theta Tau, the professional engineering fraternity, has plans for celebrating its 40th anniversary on October 13th with an initiation, a banquet, and a dance.

By the way, fellows, the Mecheleiv, the Engineers' Monthly, needs some help. If you can write, draw, type, or take pictures, just drop a note in the Mecheleiv box outside of the Dean's office. Come, on engineers, help out if you can!

If you keep your grades high, and become active in your societies, one day you will be surprised by a bid by Sigma Tau. To the neophytes and older students who are unacquainted with this fraternity, be informed that Sigma Tau is the honorary engineering fraternity. Don't forget good grades and an active society membership make you eligible.

Any items about students and alumni will be appreciated for this column.

Kronstadt, class of '45 had a bouncing baby girl this summer. Corrections, please, his wife had the girl. Eddie Cantor has nothing on me. I increased my family by another girl this summer. Abby and Debbie, what next???

Sigma Tau has its first meeting of the year on October 17. All Sigma Tau please attend. You will be notified as to time and place.

NOTE: To all engineers on the third floor of the M. E. building—there is a room with nice, soft, easy chairs. This room, on the same floor with the profs' is the Engineer's Lounge, where you all may relax and meet your fellow slay stick artists and listen to the latest scuttlebutt.

● YOURS TRULY is still rather sore and musclebound from the tug-of-war last Friday, but old Rosie is still with you for this issue. Freshman Week ended with the very successful Hubba Hop, the attendance was large and from where I was standing it looked like everyone had a wonderful time. Just to casually put a small plug in about our future Buff 'n' Blue Dance seems like a good idea at this time. These four Buff 'n' Blues will be held in the Student Club and only a slight nominal fee will be charged. Keep your eyes on the Hatchet for further notification and I'll expect to see you all there.

Music Club Meets

● FIRST MEETING of the Symphony Club will be held Thursday, October 18, at 8 p.m. on the first floor of Columbian House, newly appointed president Sue Burgess said today.

By popular request of the club members, George Gershwin's music will be played, the president added, and urged all old members to come and to bring new students who enjoy classic and semi-classic music.

Club Initiates

● INITIATION of the three new members of Mortar Board took place in Columbian House at 8 a.m. Thursday, October 5, followed by a luncheon at the Hay-Adams.

Those present included the section director, Mrs. Hibbard Kline, and Miss Virginia Kirkbride, advisor, as well as all old and new members. Janet Evans, Agnes Smith and Elaine Smith were the new initiates.

Greeks Continue Rushing

Panhellenic Eleven Bid Rush Girls

Sororities Identify Pledge Prospects By White Ribbons

● THIS YEAR'S Panhellenic informal rushing season is at its peak. In an attempt to distinguish between non-rush girls and the rushees, white ribbons will be worn by the 395 girls registered for fall rushing.

Ribbons are obtainable from Miss Virginia R. Kirkbride, director of personnel guidance, second floor of Columbian House, and are to be worn until formal rushing begins October 20, Agnes Smith, president of Panhellenic announces.

● NO DOUBLE dating for rushees and sorority girls is permitted.

When the girls come up for ribbons they will be assigned to groups for Open House Oct. 20th and 21st.

Rushees must attend the Pan Hellenic meeting Oct 18th at 4 p.m. in D-105 to go over rules and the social calendar for rush week.

On November 4, the sororities will hold an open house in their rooms for the fraternities, so they may meet the new pledges.

Pledges of the sororities will attend a Jr. Panhellenic Tea on November 11 in Columbian House.

Panhellenic will sponsor its annual goat show on December 21. Each new pledge class will present a ten-minute skit, competing for a loving cup which will be awarded to the winner. Judges for the show have not as yet been selected.

Bassin's Owners Offer Cash Award For Best Name

By BETTY WEETHEE

● WHAT'S IN A NAME? Five dollars, if you get the right one, so promised Bud Norcross, co-owner of what is now known as Bassin's at 20th and H Sts., N. W.

Present owners of "B's" want a new name for this campus hang-out. Suggestions for the new name should be submitted to Mr. Norcross at the above address before November 1st, and each name should contain not more than three syllables, preferably two.

To the originator of the winning name will go $5.00. A prize of $3.00 will be given to the second best. The winning name, which will replace the well known "Bassin's," will also be applied to the independent football team on campus, the jerseys for which are being purchased by Mr. Norcross and his partner.

Shall it be Gunga's Den? Dead End? or Campus Blues? Come on, try—you can't lose!

Greek Men Offer Gala Rush Week

Eight-Day Formal Program Presents Score of Functions

● THIS WEEK offers probably more social events for prospective fraternity men than have been seen at the University for many months, according to Larry Strickland, IFC president.

As soon after six a. m. of last Sunday as might have been considered a decent hour by each particular house, telephone lines were in steady use to reiterate to each prospective neophyte the invitation extended during the closed rush period.

Sunday afternoon picnics were the first functions for Sigma Chi, at the Fallsides, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, at Pierce Mill. Theta Delta Chi, somewhat dubious about the weather, stayed indoors for a house dance, and "chicken-in-the-rough." Phi Sigma Kappa's tea dance at their house saw more than 100 in attendance.

Events of Monday night were exclusively smokers. Tuesday night offered a picnic at Sligo Cabin, hosted by Phi Sig; house dances at Sigma Chi and Theta Delt; a smoker at the Pi Kappa Alpha House, with Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon and Col. K. D. Pulsipher, National Secretary of the fraternity as guest speakers.

Sigma Chis served lunch at their house yesterday at noon. Last evening the SAEs were hosts for a "Novelty Dance"; the Phi Sigs dressed in new, gaily plaided shirts and bright blue jeans which belied the name of "Hard Times Party," were at the Potomac Boat Club, with music provided by the Boat Club Orchestra; Theta Delt's hied themselves out for a hayride, destination Sligo.

Today at 1:00 p. m. Pi Kappa Alpha met at the Senate Restaurant at the Capitol for lunch. Tonight the Sigma Chi's Oyster Roast comes off, and alumni smokers will be given by Phi Sig (See GREEK, Page 6)

Tres Chic

BY GEORGIE

● HELLO THERE to all of you who have managed to survive Freshman Week. You have exactly one week to recover before sorority rushing gets under way. Many new fashions were seen on freshmen as well as upper-classmen during the past week. Light weight wool dresses were noted as the most popular fashion at the tea dances and luncheons that were held. One that we particularly liked was the one worn by Ruth Bortnick. This one had a full black skirt and a soft lime-colored top. The cap sleeves were trimmed with black, and the high choker neckline was suitable for the latest jewelry.

Newest style in classroom wear is the wool jersey blouse, which is running the ever popular nubby knit sweater a close second. The one worn by blond Jean Willis had three-quarter length sleeves and was fitted around the waist. One feature of this blouse that was especially nice were the pleats by each shoulder. It had the new high neckline, and buttons down the back. For date wear, Jean, a freshman, dresses her blouse up with a gold mesh choker necklace.

That's all for now and in closing we'd like to compliment the fashion-minded people who selected blue jeans and white sweat shirts as the appropriate thing to wear for last week's Tug-of-War.

Randall Shoemaker Writes First of New Music Series

● RUMORS AND KEEN anticipation regarding the possibility of the establishment of a school orchestra or band in the near future lead us to present a group of features in the field of music. Randall Shoemaker offers herewith the first of the series:

This week's news from the record department will spread joy through the ranks of a select group of jazz collectors. Brunswick has come up with a new album of Frank Teschemacher re-issues that should be all over town within a week. The album includes such old time jazz favorites as "I Found A New Baby," and "There'll Be Some Changes Made."

Of the four bands represented in the album the Chicago Rhythm Kings are, to my way of thinking, the most enjoyable of the lot. On most of the sides, Tesch is accompanied by such jazz greats as Spanier, Manone, Mezzrow, Hodes, Condon, Freeman, Sullivan, and Wetling. The only weak spots in the album are the two Friar's Society sides.

Ensemble is uninspired and were it not for Tesch's exciting clarinet this band would now be long forgotten. "Trying to Stop My Crying" features a vocal by Wingy Manone that will surprise those who are used to Wingy's usual gravel-voiced style. On "Baby Won't You Please Come Home?"

we get another surprise by way of an unprecedented vocal from Eddie Condon.

Crosby fans will be pleased with "It's Been A Long, Long Time," Decca's latest release. It's Bing at his dreamy, romantic best. Accompaniment on both sides is by Les Paul and his Trio.

"Time's A-Wasting," one of the Duke's latest, is scoring a big success in the juke boxes. Ellington fans will recognize this tune as the old "Things Ain't What They Used To Be," first recorded by an Ellington unit under Johnny Hodges.

My agents tell me that "House of Joy" by Cootie Williams and his orchestra is rocking the joints all over town. Maybe you'll like it better than I did.

In the classical field Victor's new album of music from "Carmen" should appeal especially to those who have always liked the Carmen music, but had no particular taste for opera.

Under The AXE

By Janet Evans

• MANY TINY tidbits on student life pass unnoticed amid the hustle and bustle of daily activity. George Washington's little hatchet may fall on the most unlikely crumb of information about professors, students, activities, or plans. No one will be safe from the grind, all will be treated impartially. Don't plague your existence, however, with fears of the axe which hangs over your head.

Eva Karpischek, senior, received the first news since the war of her relatives in Prague, Czechoslovakia, the other day. Her aunt wrote that members of the family were imprisoned by the Nazis for violations of the "Nazi Code of Justice."

Returned to The Hatchet office last week were two copies of a November, 1942, issue marked "Service Suspended"—they were addressed to the Philippine Islands.

War secrecy and modesty, mostly, are to be blamed for the extensive suppression of interesting facts about faculty members and their war activities. Perhaps someday when the peace is more or less (?) settled someone will be able to inveigle a story out of Professor James Corliss.

Many university students have left the country in service of their government. Libby Faler, a foreign affairs major, left for Chungking this summer. She was told she should pack her clothes in three different forms—in a duffle bag for six weeks, in luggage, limited to 60 pounds, four to six months, and the remainder in her trunks. She was flying over the hump but her trunks could not be expected for some time.

Soon it will be time for Cleopatra and Theodora. Students will cut their classes and flock to Govt. 1 to hear the inimicable Dean Kayser discourse on these two immortal femmes fatales. This year however, students will have an opportunity to attend three instead of two sections.

Filled to over-flowing, section A, with over 400 students, "took walks" invariably ending up at the Concordia Evangelical Church which had a larger capacity than Govt. 1. Now, however, there are two sections made of the one, both of which will meet in Government, one at 9:10; the other at 11:10 a.m.

and Theta Delt. Tomorrow noon Theta Delt will receive their rush men at the Madrilion for lunch. Tomorrow night the Wardman Park will be the scene of the Sigma Chi formal dance; PIKA will be at the Shoreham for a swim party, followed by buffet dinner at their house; informal dances are slated for Phi Sig, Theta Delt, and SAE.

On Saturday semi-formals will take place at Theta Delt and Phi Sig houses, each with orchestra; "Flack's Flop House Bar," with promised innovations, at SAE; an informal at Sigma Chi; and the final smoker for PIKA.

Each house will take advantage of the open period to the end. The Sigma Chis with a tea dance on Sunday afternoon; a graduate tea at Theta Delt; and a stag dinner at 6 p. m. at Phi Sig.

The closed season will be effective once more at midnight Sunday. Balloting on Wednesday, October 18, will close the formal fall season. For a period of one month thereafter no man may be pledged to any fraternity.

University Hails Sigma Nu's Return To Active Status

By BILL DORSEY

• SIGMA NU is coming back and is coming back this fall! Grandison G. Allen, president of its Washington alumni chapter, has just announced that the Sigma Nu fraternity intends to return immediately to active status at the University.

First step in Sigma Nu's return will be a meeting of its alumni which is scheduled for Wednesday evening, October 17, at 8:30 p. m.; this meeting will be held at 2915 Albemarle St., N. W., phone EM-erson 7293. President Allen urges all Sigma Nu's registered in the University, whether initiated at the University or elsewhere, to attend.

Sigma Nu, a leading national fraternity, was established at the University in 1915; during the past two years its local undergraduate chapter has been inactive due to the overactivity of the draft boards, which took away almost all of its active members in short order. At present there are 97 active chapters of Sigma Nu, the closest one being located at the nearby University of Maryland.

FENCERS

University Fencers' Club, however, promise to introduce themselves before they kill anybody.

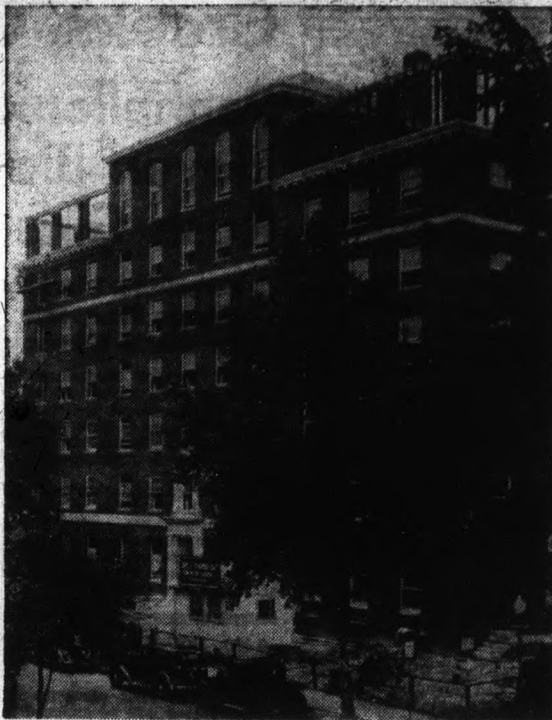

"Fencing is one of the most popular sports on European university campuses. When Hitler came into power in Germany, he revived the duel among students, who used the schlager. Scars on the face were indications of valor and bravery. The whole body was padded except for the face."

Students here use regulation fencing uniforms, unnecessary for beginners. The club supplies all necessary equipment, but the coach advises that students should bring shorts or slacks and a pair of sneakers.

Student Albert Manley, who has studied under several fencing masters, acts as the volunteer coach until a regulation coach is provided. Last spring Manley won first place in a contest sponsored by the Washington Fencers' Club, a professional fencers club in the city.

In this country, the Amateur Fencers' League of America is the recognized organization that sets up rules for the sport. Classifications for fencers include prep fencers, novices, juniors, and seniors. Fencing is required at the Naval Academy and at West Point. It develops trigger-speed movement, strategy, skilful deception, and also serves to discipline muscles to coordinate with the brain.

University fencers believe that if a sufficiently adequate part of the student body displayed interest in reviving fencing, the Physical Education Department would get a regular coach. Teams will be formed, anyway, Miss Meltzer concluded, with hopes of being able to participate with other schools in fencing meets according to the rules of the Southern Conference.

New Enrollment Necessitates Change in Strong Hall Rules

• NEW REGULATIONS for residents of Strong Hall have been issued by Miss Virginia R. Kirkbride, director of personnel guidance and some of last year's rules have been altered considerably due to the large number of freshmen enrolled this fall.

Rules have been made regarding guests, telephone privileges, study period, and social regulations, and in a few instances, separate rules have been made for freshmen and upper classmen.

Regulations now are:

All freshmen must return to Strong Hall by 12 midnight, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and by 1 a. m. Friday and Saturday.

All upper classmen must return to Strong Hall by 1 a. m. Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights and by 3 a. m. on Friday and Saturday nights. It unavoidably detained beyond these hours a telegram must be sent to the hostess.

Residents may not have gentlemen guests in the dormitory after midnight.

No guest can be allowed at the dining hall unless other arrangements cannot be made.

No long distance telephone calls may be made from the dormitory. An unlimited number of short calls from room to room in Strong Hall and an average of one out-going city call a day are permissible.

Switchboard is closed from 10 p. m. to 8 a. m. Telegrams will be received at any hour. No telegrams may be sent through the switchboard.

Guests may not be invited to the rooms unless the resident accompanies them or is in the room to receive them. The telephone operator will not allow visitors to go above the first floor except under the above conditions.

Shorts are not to be worn to the dining hall; slacks are not to be worn to dinner.

The dormitory must be quiet after 11 p. m.

Each resident may have two overnight guests a semester. There shall be no guests during the sorority rush season, during the registration periods, nor for one week preceding and one week succeeding each registration. Regardless of whether or not you use one of the guest beds you must sign for your guest and also ask the hostess.

Residents leaving Strong Hall to be out after 10:30 p. m. must sign out on the paper provided for that purpose. In signing out for overnight or for the weekend, residents must leave the address of where they will be and the day upon which they plan to return.

Educators Meet

• ALPHA THETA chapter of Pi Lambda Theta, national honorary fraternity for women in education, held its first meeting of the year Saturday, October 6, in Columbian House.

Guest speaker, Miss Jane Smiley of the Office of Strategic Services, spoke of her tour of duty in Cairo, Egypt, with the OSS.

Next meeting will be held at Columbian House November 3.

Poll Shows Multiplicity Of Thought

Presidential Citation Reaches Hatchet Monday Evening

By ADRIENNE BARRY

• WHAT DO YOU think of this year's Hatchet? What would you like to see more of? The questions in this week's survey brought their surprises.

Unexpected comment of the week came when President Cloyd H. Marvin dropped in Monday night as we were toiling to put the paper to bed. In a letter to the Board of Editors, he stated, "My hearty congratulations to you upon your issue of October 4. It is a splendid contribution to our university life."

Other remarks were more difficult to obtain. The majority of the students interviewed read the paper but had never given a second thought to how it could be improved. A few voiced strong opinions.

Mildred Stine, graduate, "For the first time in the last few years, I really enjoy reading the editorial page."

Dottie Buckelew, junior, "Let's have more of Foggy Bottoms and Tres Chic!"

Burnice Jarmon, Registrar, "Last week's issue was the best I have seen."

Darhi Forman, senior, "After the struggle last year, I am glad to see the Gazette such a success."

Jim O'Brien, freshman, "You could always add some Irish humor instead of some of those fillers."

Bertie Stamm, graduate, "There could be better copy reading. Missed commas in the editorials show too much midnight oil must have been burned."

Dave Bates, junior, "Variety of columns have added a need to the new eight-pager."

Ethel Fisher, law student, "It's confusing and amusing to have the Smith girls on campus, but I never expected The Hatchet editors to mislead the public about blondes."

Warren Clark, junior, "How about The Hatchet getting back of the sport's campaign?"

Student Life Meets

• MEMBERS OF THE Student Life Committee held their first meeting of the year yesterday at 3:30 p. m. in the office of Virginia R. Kirkbride, director of personnel guidance. Dr. Burnice H. Jarmon, chairman, presided.

Faculty and student members of the committee participated in a discussion of the Book Exchange.

To Make Plans

• PHI PI EPSILON, foreign service sorority, will hold a meeting at 8 p. m. tomorrow in the Strong Hall Library. Rush plans will be made, and the program for the year will be worked out, Virginia Crosswhite, president, announced.

Intermural Sports To Start Sunday

• SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14, will mark the opening of the 1945-46 intermural program. Touch football will be curtain raiser. Only two games are scheduled for this Sunday, but with the ending of finals at Medical School, several more entries are expected.

Openers, at 10 a. m. on the Monument Grounds, pit the Sigma Chis against the Veterans' Club, and the Theta Delta Chis against the SAEs. Both of these games are expected to be hard fought tilts with the outcome forming a basis for the prediction of the outcome of the league.

Carrying over their rivalry from last year, the Sigma Chi-Vet engagement should be the outstanding game of the season. Last year, the two teams battled it out for first place, ending the season in a deadlock. On a muddy field, the first play-off ended in a tie, but in the second set-to, the superior Veteran team handed the Sigs a convincing 12 to 0 defeat, thereby winning the championship.

This year's fray will feature the big line of the Vets against the fast backs of the Chi-men. Holding a big weight advantage, the Veterans are favored to take the Sigma Chis.

Theta Deltas are expected to have little trouble with the light and inexperienced SAE team. Their well-balanced team should prove more than a match for any surprises the Alpha boys may come up with.

Regular football rules will prevail in the games with the following exceptions:

1. Nine men will make up a team, with five players in the line and 4 in the backfield on the defense. The defense will be left to the individual teams.
2. The passer must be behind the scrimmage line when a forward pass is thrown, with only the backs and ends eligible to receive passes.
3. A runner is considered tackled by being touched with two hands between the shoulders and the knees.
4. A blocker's feet must be on the ground when in the act of blocking.
5. When a kick is called, neither lines can charge; in case of a quick kick, this ruling does not apply.
6. The quarters will be 10 minutes in length, making a 40 minute game.

Referees Announced

• PETE LABUKAS, Frank August and Eddie Wilamowski, former football greats at the University, and Sanford Rogers and Roy Johnson, varsity men at other universities, will officiate at the intermural football games.

WAA Takes Sports Cruise Tomorrow

• WOMEN'S Athletic Association will open its fall program with a "Sports Cruise" party on the roof of Strong Hall tomorrow, at 4:30 p.m. for all freshmen, transferees, and former members Elaine Smith, president, announced.

Under Dot Baine's direction, the social committee has planned a program for the afternoon's entertainment. Fall activities, hockey, soccer, riding, tennis, and dance will be explained to the newcomers, and ways of winning various letters and stars will be outlined. Following the program, refreshments will be served.

Elaine Smith heads the association as president, Jeanne Read, as vice-president. The secretary is Janet Doldge; treasurer, Mickey Toland; membership secretary, Gloria Menzel; and publicity chairman, Lois Lord. Miss Ruth Atwell is faculty advisor.

OTTS ZAHN

Axemen's Past Glory Revealed

Historical Review Shows Old Stars' Feats On Court

By JERRY BOIN
• HOPEFUL RUMORS bouncing around the campus that the University might be represented this year in intercollegiate basketball competition have been sending aspiring cheerleaders and rooters into practice huddles. And there are nostalgic visions of Colonial court glory of the past being conjured up in anticipation. It doesn't seem like a bad idea to have a peek into that past, under Coach Otts Zahn, for the shape of what is hoped will be the things to come in the near future.

The hoop game had been the headliner in the GW sports picture for a long time before intercollegiate competition became only a sigh-inducing memory a couple of years ago. Colonial quints had compiled great records and produced brilliant performers for as far back as most fans can recall.

Top-ranking fives of the nation appeared on the schedule—often meeting the Buffmen in thriller-diller tilts here in D. C., before wildly yelling crowds: such highly-regarded quints as the colorful Oklahoma Aggies, Duke, Minnesota, West Virginia, St. Johns, Loyola, and, of course, Georgetown.

As a matter of fact, the Colonials themselves came heartbreakingly close to earning a berth in the National Invitational Tourney at New York City in three recent years, 1938, 1940 and 1941. Despite these disappointments, they won adequate consolation by sweeping the Southern Conference Title in 1943.

The '43 Colonial cage wizards, swishing through a tough schedule with excellent results decorated the debut of Otts Zahn as coach with smashing success, as they annexed the Southern Conference crown. Though faced with the difficult task of replacing the two mainstays of the former team, Zunic and Gilham, Coach Zahn managed to mold a smooth-clicking combination centered around Marty Gallagher, Ed Gustafson, Ted Reichwein, Jim Myers, Ed Rausch and a couple of others.

In glinting over this subject of basketball at GW, it would be criminal, not to say illogical, and nonsensical, not to add a few words of tribute to "Mad Matt" Zunic, of the '40-41-42 squads, who has been acclaimed as the greatest basketballer ever produced in D. C. Matt broke all GW scoring records while hitting the hoop for the Colonials, marking up 243 and 258 points, respectively, in his last two years.

Matt Zunic was the symbol of a golden age of basketball which ended two years ago. Zunics are few and far between, but it is to be hoped that the beginning of another golden age of GW's number one sport is not very far away.

• FERDINAND FOCH, Marshal of France, sat in the Yale Bowl one afternoon several years after the close of World War I. Colonel J. R. Kilpatrick, head of Madison Square, was divulging the mysteries of American football to the Marshal, as was demonstrated by the Harvard and Yale teams.

Foch followed every detail of the play. During a time out, he turned to Kilpatrick and said, "Colonel, this is the game that most nearly resemble war. I note a similarity in tactics and strategy. In your fullback plunge, I see the frontal assault of Verdun memory. Your end run suggests a flank attack akin to Gallieni's taxicab army demarche; your forward passes might be likened to an aerial bombardment."

When World War II broke out, America needed leaders. For its leaders, America looked to its athletes, and they did not let us down.

For example, there's General Douglas MacArthur, an outstanding athletic at West Point. He was rooted out of the Philippines by the Japanese. His parting promise was "I will return," and with the determination of a fighter, he did return.

Look at Endicott Peabody, Harvard's all-American guard in 1939. He was an officer on a submarine. This type of duty requires a special sort of courage—a cool, unemotional, sustained courage during the long hours spent underseas in dangerous waters Peabody had it.

Yale has its hero. Naval Aviator Hovey Semour, a football star, was killed when his plane nose-dived into the Pacific after he had been "waved off" the crowded deck of a carrier. Unflinchingly, Semour obeyed the signal, even though he knew his gas tanks were almost dry.

Said MacArthur of Tom Trappell, who under concentrated enemy fire held off the Japanese at a small river crossing, "He matched his brilliant gridiron career with heroic leadership on the battlefield."

Al Blozis, Georgetown University star, was killed while on infantry patrol in the Vosges Mountains early last winter. Blozis volunteered to go out in a snowstorm to find his lieutenant who was missing. Neither returned.

And so on down the line—thousands of great athletes who have made good in a much bigger and greater game. These examples lend weight to MacArthur's idea that athletics tend to build in the participants the initiative and the ability to meet sudden situations and make decisions for themselves.

In this past crisis, the world of sports met the demand for qualified leaders. Don't we have an obligation to prepare leaders for future crises?

Big Year Ahead For WAA As Enrollment Increases

• OPENING OF THE FALL semester was marked by an increase in registration of over 100 freshmen and sophomores in Women's physical education classes.

This greater enrollment will afford the Women's Athletic Association the opportunity to produce superior teams for competitive activity.

Continuing with the program followed in the past, athletic teams will be made up from the various classes. Members of these teams who excel, will be chosen to produce exceptional teams for individual freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

Before the close of the fall season the physical education department has arranged two major competitive programs in hockey with the University of Maryland and Trinity College called "Sports Days in Hockey." The exact date of these tournaments will be announced later.

Highlighting the fall season is the Annual Sports Day at Hood College in Frederick, Maryland. In the latter part of November our outstanding hockey teams, three superior soccer teams and ten exceptional tennis players will be sent to represent us at this outing. Chartered buses will carry the girls to and from the grounds.

Riding classes, too, have showed evidence of augmentation in registration by an enrollment of 150 students. Under the direction of Mrs. Benjamin Blays, the classes will be held at Pegasus Stables situated right off East West Highway.

With taxi service back and forth, instruction in the Ring, and tree riding in Rock Creek Park, participants in riding classes will derive not only material benefits but most enjoyable afternoons. The Riding Show which climaxes the season should far outdo any given in previous years.

Survey, have returned from a summer investigation trip in Germany and have resumed their respective courses.

Alexander Vuillemin, a labor economist with the State Department's Labor Division, has joined the staff, and also Gerhard Colm, now offering Theory and Literature of Public Finance. Carl J. Ratzlaff of the Tariff Commission is lecturing in Introductory Economics and Economic Theory.

Donald C. Kline, associate professor of art, has returned from war leave and in addition to resuming his regular courses has added a course on the Introduction to the Arts in America as a part of the American Thought and Civilization program.

In history, Mrs. Solon J. Buck, wife of the Archivist of the United States, and formerly of the University of Minnesota, is continuing her course in Social History of the United States. Richard Purcell, formerly of Catholic University, is teaching a seminar on the United States History. W. C. Poole, career diplomat in the State Department, is lecturing on Diplomatic History of the United States.

These three new faculty members are handling courses on American History representing a part of the University's effort to emphasize work on the United States.

Four full time professors have been added to the staff of the English Department. Ernest Shepard, chairman, announced. Calvin D. Linton, recently released from the Navy, is replacing Dr. Maurice Irvine as assistant professor in English. He is teaching a section of Introduction to English Literature, and 17th Century Literature, freshman English, and sophomore composition. Dr. Linton is a graduate of the University (A.B., '35) and received his Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins in 1942. He formerly taught at Queens College, Charlotte, N. C.

Other new lecturers include Paul Charles Donleavy (M.A. '37), Alice Venezky (B.A. '44; M.A. Columbia, '45) and James Harold Coberly (M.A. '38; B.A. '33). Miss Venezky graduated with honors in English and with distinction. She maintained a four-point average and was winner of the Cutter Prize in English. Mr. Coberly was a Sanders Fellow in English in 1940-41 and 1941-42. All four will be teaching freshman English.
